

* IMPORTANT

NOTICE

Please be advised that effective October 1, 2023

All Pro Se litigants (parties not represented by an attorney) and attorneys are required to communicate with the Court electronically. Electronic communication must be conducted by Email, Fax or E-file. ALL litigant communications MUST now include a valid Email address.

All communications from litigants to the Court and the Court to litigants will be conducted electronically using one of the above means of communication. Beware; all notices, copies, judgments, and other documents sent by the Court to litigants will come from the following email address: jp2@co.hill.tx.us

To prevent Court communications from being placed in their Junk/Spam folder, litigants are encouraged to add the above Email address listed to their address book under contacts. Litigants are responsible for immediately notifying the Court of any change to their Email address on file with the Court.

Have any questions, please let us know.

Thank you,

Hill County Justice of the Peace, Pct. 2
